Corporate Governance Compliance Report
1.1. FACILITATING THE EXERCISE OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS
1.1.2- Up-to-date information and disclosures which may affect the exercise of shareholder rights are available to investors at the corporate website.	X					Material information that may affect the exercise of shareholder rights is published on the Pegasus Investor Relations Website. The Website content is regularly reviewed by Pegasus Investor Relations and Company Secretariat.
1.2. RIGHT TO OBTAIN AND REVIEW INFORMATION
1.2.1 - Management did not enter into any transaction that would complicate the conduct of special audit.					X	The Company complies with the Turkish Commercial Code, the Capital Markets Law and the applicable regulations regarding special audit rights of shareholders. No special audit requests were received by Pegasus in 2020.
1.3. GENERAL ASSEMBLY
1.3.2 - The company ensures the clarity of the General Assembly agenda, and that an item on the agenda does not cover multiple topics.	X					Pegasus ensured that the discussion items for the Annual General Assembly meeting held in 2020 were clearly addressed in the meeting agenda. Accordingly, only one proposal was voted under each agenda item.
1.3.7- Insiders with privileged information have informed the board of directors about transactions conducted on their behalf within the scope of the company's activities in order for these transactions to be presented at the General Shareholders' Meeting.					X	Duties assumed elsewhere by nominees for Pegasus Board of Directors were disclosed in the Information Document for the Annual General Assembly meeting held in 2020. There are no further transactions that required separate disclosure at the General Assembly meeting.
1.3.8 - Members of the board of directors who are concerned with specific agenda items, auditors, and other related persons, as well as the officers who are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements were present at the General Shareholders' Meeting.	X					A Board Member representing the Board of Directors, Pegasus CEO, CFO, and responsible partner representing the Independent Auditor attended the Annual General Assembly Meeting held on April 7, 2020.
						Donations and charitable contributions were discussed as a separate item on the agenda for the Annual General Assembly meeting held on April 7, 2020. Shareholders were informed of the total donations made in the relevant year and that

1.3.10 - The agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting included a separate item detailing the amounts and beneficiaries of all donations and contributions.	X					these were in line with the Pegasus Donations and Charitable Contributions Policy. Detailed information on beneficiaries was not provided as none of the donations made in the period breached the policy or otherwise resulted in a related party transaction. Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.
1.3.11 - The General Shareholders' Meeting was held open to the public, including the stakeholders, without having the right to speak.	X					Pegasus recognizes the principle of having all stakeholders and media attend General Assembly meetings as observers in Article 17/1/e of the Articles of Associations and re-extended the invitation to these parties in the call for the General Assembly meeting held on April 7, 2020.
1.4. VOTING RIGHTS
1.4.1 - There is no restriction preventing shareholders from exercising their shareholder rights.	X					Pegasus Articles of Association do not restrict voting rights of our shareholders. The shareholders were not required to deposit their shares to attend the Annual General Assembly meeting held on April 7, 2020 and they were allowed to participate in person/by proxy and on location and electronically.
1.4.2 - The company does not have shares that carry privileged voting rights.	X					Pegasus Articles of Association does not recognize any share groups with any privileges.
1.4.3-The company withholds from exercising its voting rights at the General Shareholders' Meeting of any company with which it has cross-ownership, in case such cross-ownership provides management control.					X	Pegasus was not subject to any cross-shareholding relationship in 2020.
1.5. MINORITY RIGHTS
1.5.1 - The company pays maximum diligence to the exercise of minority rights.	X					There are no restrictions in the Pegasus Articles of Association regarding the exercise of statutory minority rights. There were no instances where such minority rights were exercised in 2020.
1.5.2 - The Articles of Association extend the use of minority rights to those who own less than one twentieth of the outstanding shares, and expand the scope of the minority rights.			X			Pegasus Articles of Association do not extend the scope of statutory minority rights. Pegasus believes that the current practice does not have any negative impact on corporate governance, considering the similar position of other companies trading on the BIST and the absence of any shareholder requests on the matter. Therefore, Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.
1.6. DIVIDEND RIGHT
1.6.1 - The dividend policy approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting is posted on the company website.	X					Pegasus Dividend Policy is published on Pegasus Investor Relations Website for unrestricted access. Pegasus is a growth company and continues to aim creating long-term

1.6.2 - The dividend distribution policy comprises the minimum information to ensure that the shareholders can have an opinion on the procedure and principles of dividend distributions in the future.	X			shareholder value by reinvesting profits into the business since its IPO in 2013. In this context, Pegasus Dividend Policy underlines the principle of utilizing any distributable profit in consideration of the company's growth targets and its financing requirements.
1.6.3 - The reasons for retaining earnings, and their allocations, are stated in the relevant agenda item.	X			Shareholders were informed by the Information Document for the Annual General Assembly meeting held in 2020 on allocation of the Company's net distributable profit for 2019 as extraordinary reserves with the purpose of strengthening liquidity and creating additional resource for growth in operations, in accordance with the Turkish Financial Reporting Standards and Turkish Tax Procedure Law No. 213.
1.6.4 - The board reviewed whether the dividend policy balances the benefits of the shareholders and those of the company.	X			Pegasus Dividend Policy proposed by the Board of Directors for shareholder approval advises shareholders to consider the company's growth targets and its financing requirements when deciding on the use of any distributable profit.
1.7. TRANSFER OF SHARES
1.7.1 - There are no restrictions preventing shares from being transferred.	X			The majority of Pegasus shares and voting rights must belong to Turkish citizens for the company to continue its operations under Turkish Civil Aviation Law and the applicable regulations of the Turkish Civil Aviation Authority. Article 7/3 of the Pegasus Articles of Association authorizes the Board of Directors to take certain actions against share transfers that would result in the violation of this rule. Pegasus believes that the provisions of the Articles of Association are necessary and proportionate to ensure continuity of the company business. Besides, currently 34.53% of Pegasus shares are traded on BIST and Pegasus does not foresee any need to resort to these measures under the current shareholding structure. Therefore, Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.

X				The ability of our Board members to undertake duties in other Companies is, in principle , not restricted. However; in the event of a potential conflict of interest or a proposed appointment that is likely to have an influence on the Board member's ability to discharge duties and obligations to Pegasus the Board members are required to inform us in advance. Pegasus believes that the current practice does not have any negative impact on corporate governance. Therefore, Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.
4.5. BOARD COMMITTEES
					Pegasus Board of Directors is composed of eight members and operates with three Committees. Of our Board members, three are independent Board members and six are

4.5.5 - Board members serve in only one of the Board's committees.		X		non-executive Board members, thereby being able to act as a chairperson and/or member of a Board Committee. For this reason, some of our independent/non-executive Board members have appointments in more than one Board Committee. Nevertheless ; a Board member can act as the chairperson of a single Committee. Pegasus believes that the current distribution of duties does not have any negative impact on Committee operations and performance. Therefore, Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.
4.5.6 - Committees have invited persons to the meetings as deemed necessary to obtain their views.	X			Each Board Committee may seek information from Pegasus management or other Pegasus employees and may invite relevant persons to attend Committee meetings if necessary. This rule is incorporated in the Committee Charters.
4.5.7 - If external consultancy services are used, the independence of the provider is stated in the annual report.	X			Pegasus acts prudently to prevent any conflict of interests with the entities providing services such as investment advice and rating services. Section 1/G of the Pegasus Annual Report published in 2020 indicated that there were no transactions in the relevant period to report that gave rise to a conflict of interest in this regard.
4.5.8 - Minutes of all committee meetings are kept and reported to board members.	X			Each Board meeting includes an agenda item where Committee chairs provide information on Committee works for the prior term and a regular flow of information among the Board in terms of Committee works is thus ensured. Furthermore, Committee on the Early Detection of Risks shares written Risk Management Reports with the Board once every two months.
4.6. FINANCIAL RIGHTS
4.6.1-The board of directors has conducted a board performance evaluation to review whether it has discharged all its responsibilities effectively.	X			Board self-evaluation studies are regularly carried out at Pegasus since 2013 with the support of independent advisors. With the aim of setting targets and following-up the results of agreed actions, the Board of Directors carries out self-evaluation surveys once every two years. The last survey was held in 2019. From 2020 onwards, the actions adopted as a result of the previous survey were implemented. Board Committees carry-out an annual evaluation of their own work and such review was carried out by the Committees in 2020.

4.6.4-The company did not extend any loans to its board directors or executives, nor extended their lending period or enhanced the amount of those loans, or improve conditions thereon, and did not extend loans under a personal credit title by third parties or provided guarantees such as surety in favour of them.	X				Section 2 of the Pegasus 2020 Annual Report published indicates that there are no loans or security extended by Pegasus for the benefit of the members of the Board of Directors or senior management.
4.6.5 - The individual remuneration of board members and executives is disclosed in the annual report.		X			Pegasus discloses payments made to the members of the Board of Directors and senior management in two groups in its annual financial reports. Payments relating to Board and Committee duties payable to the members of the Board of Directors were determined at the Annual General Assembly meeting held on April 17, 2019 and were disclosed as part of the meeting minutes. Pegasus does not disclose senior management compensation on a personal basis considering the similar position of other companies trading on the BIST and to protect its competitive interests and believes that the current practice does not have any negative impact on corporate governance. Therefore, Pegasus does not plan for any changes in its current practice in 2021.
